Sale of Women in Andhra Pradesh

*373. SHRI K.M. KHAN: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn towards sale of women at Eluru and other places of Andhra Pradesh for Rs. 5,000;

(b) whether Government's attention has also been drawn to the fact that sale of women through quarterly auctions is taking place where ten girls are auctioned for one year and the bids vary from Rs. 5,000 to Rs. 13,000;

(c) whether the Central Government would intervene in this serious matter urgently and call for relevant information from the State Government and place the same in the House; and

(d) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE DEPARTMENT OF YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS AND THE DEPARTMENT OF WOMEN AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SUSHREE UMA BHARTI): (a) and (b) Government's attention has been drawn towards the sale of women at Eluru. Government requested the State Government to send a report in this regard.

(c) and (d) The State Government of Andhra Pradesh has reported that it is a tradition in particular communities like the Domnaras to send their women on contract basis for particular periods for prostitution with affluent persons. Police has already registered 19 cases against the auctioners/bidders from January to October, 1998. 412 women have also been booked out of which 382 have been convicted. The State Government has decided to withdraw all such vulnerable women from those area; and put in Short Stay Homes and Mahila Pranganamas (Rehabilitation Centres for Women under the State Government). District Administration is arranging immediate counselling and also formation of self help groups for income generating activities; for such women.
